

Palm Sunday-1952

My dear Father Aloysius:

I am ashamed to write to you after such a long silence. I appreciate the Christmas and Easter cards you send Father. That is an assurance that you are still thinking of me, and perhaps remembering to say a prayer for me now and then, and I certainly need them, now more than ever. Things are not too pleasant in the home since we moved. I like this house as well as any I could find in the city of Baltimore, but my poor aunt simply will not submit to the will of God, and her unhappiness and constant complaints have a bad reaction on my nervous system. We have been here since last May and the house has never been blessed, so please say a prayer that she will settle down and make up her mind to stay here. That is one of the reasons I have not been able to keep up with my Catholic Action correspondence, because after a day at the office the energy which is left is used up in nervous tension. My one prayer is that we will stay here, where it is so close to the church and my work.

My relic collection is growing and since writing to you last I have added your St. Aloysius. I also have my favorite, St. Alphonsus and my favorite of favorites, St. or rather Blessed Pope Pius X. This latter relic is hard to get and a priest told me that when they were taking flesh from Bl. Pius, fresh blood flowed. I also have St. Thomas Aquinas, and am putting him to work as I enrolled this year for a course in Italian and am asking his help. I like the language because it is so beautiful and I have many Italian friends and would like to converse with them in their native tongue, but most of all I want to learn enough of the language so I may read the sermons of Father Lombardi which are not published in English. About two years ago when Fr. Dominic, R.I.P., visited Bruno of Tre Fontane and asked him what Blessed Mother spoke to him about in visions (after the Tre Fontane appearance), Bruno said that he was under obedience not to discuss these conversations, but added "if you really want to know what Bl. Virgin said, then go and listen to Fr. Lombardi". I understand Fr. L. was in Calif. I hope you had the pleasure of hearing him.

I just finished reading life of St. Benedict Joseph Labre, by Agnes dela Gorski...it is wonderful. One of my friends, Fr. Jerome OEB, liked it so well that he wrote to Rome for a relic. He is now writing a review on the book to be published in the American Benedictine Academy Review-a quarterly.

The last time I saw Fr. Parente he told me he had just finished the life of Padre Pio (English) and Grail will publish it, probably at end of summer. None of us liked the book of Fr. Carthy on Padre Pio, because it is full of inaccuracies.

Have you read WAY OF DIVINE LOVE by Sr. Josefa. I should say by Our Lord, ~~dictated~~ dictated to Sr. Josefa. It is wonderful. Some of the important passages have been compiled into little booklets and if you like I could send them to you. I love to read, but aside from

S.S. my favorite books will always be MYSTICAL CITY OF GOD--Mary d'Agreda. To me, they seem to bring heaven right down to earth. I never tire of them, and my only regret is that I am not a millionaire, because I would like to give a set to every person I meet.

I hope you are well Father. Please say a prayer for me and send me your blessing. I will remember you in my prayers and send you my best wishes for a Joyous Easter.

Sincerely in Christ

Betty

Dear Father Alloysius

God bless you. How have you been.
I am writing these few lines to tell you that dear little Jesus had chosen me as his Bride. I was chosen by the Chapter on the feast of the Little Saint of France.
My name will be Servant Maria Guise del Corazon Inmaculado. I am named for a humble Mother Maria Guise who died her and for you. And I am of our Sacred Immaculate Heart. Saint Alloysius Gonzaga will be my patron
I love him, he was very pure and loved God much. I am of Mary Heart. That means I must be very humble and very submissive to her and Jesus and not care ^{for} anything in the world, only desiring to stay at my Mother's Heart and drink her pure milk of graces. God give me the grace to be very patient and little.

Will you pray much for me and my loved ones, that we may all be very pure and holy.

I want to be a little rag doll that gives much pleasure to Baby Jesus because He can do what He wants with it.

My wedding will be on March 23, Lentary Sunday at 4:00. And a bride of Carmel can be seen for three days after.
I would love to have my priest brother visit me and talk to me about our Mother.
But if God wills. At all ways, please don't forget to pray for your little sister, I will pray for you. I can read Spanish better now and speak it better too. I love the Divine Office and I have given lessons of the first and second Nocturne and have been Versiculist and Salmist.
(I don't spell better yet though)

God bless my priest brother and give him the silence and disposition of heart but not of the world, that he may help many poor people.

In Mary's Heart
Sister Celia.

(P.S. When this Holy Spirit comes down on me in my sleeping days I will pray for my priest - Brother)

Dear Fr. Aloysius,

We received your nice letter yesterday and it was heavenly to hear from you again.

Thank you very much for remembering us in your prayers. Since Mom died you have been in ours. I still have her letters that you & Betty Kelly wrote her. There all too nice & inspiring to throw away. You see Father, I've learned much about Mom thru those letters, especially of your writings after my Brother Bob's death. Although I didn't hear too much about you before she died, I knew she held your letters with the highest regard. Just one month before she died, she handed me a small package to hold for her just in case she had to go to the hospital for blood transfusions. After her death I found your letters & first learned of the pictures she donated overseas. Thru Betty's letters, which I read (most of them Mom let me read before she died) I guess she got to write to you. She was very lucky to know such nice and religious people.

Father, I'm not going any further with this letter, because I know I shouldn't be taking up your precious time like this. I only want to say again, thank you from all of us for remembering ^{us} in your prayers. We'll be always remembering you in ours too.

May God bless you, His dearest Mother love you, and our, so too much ^{forgotten} St. Joseph protect & guide you always:

Ever,

To Jesus

My dear Spiritual Father:

Thinking of my promises to God some ten years ago sent my thoughts wandering your way. So I decided I'd write a few lines this morning especially that for the first time in weeks I'll be alone in the office.

Each year as we near February 2nd, I strive to re-kindle my fervor and renew my vow of greater perfection. Since it was made forever there is no going back on my promise now. But were this inspiration coming to me just now for the first time, I would not dare be so presumptuous. I am so very, very far, from giving God all that, that entails. But there is nothing to do, but strive to live up to it. May God in His great love make up for my weakness and infidelities.

In 1955 I will celebrate my silver jubilee three, years from this summer. So as preparation for it, I am going to strive to practice the different virtues of our father's spiritual Testament. Faith - sacrifice - union - and the last year - God alone! This year my energies are being exerted in the exercise of faith.

Seeing Him in all things - believing in Him, relying on Him alone. I long ago ceased to rely on creatures. Man is subject to so many deceptions, the enemy a crafty fellow. Even the presumably holy are full of weaknesses and cannot be trusted wholly. Well could the Psalmist say: "Who is man that Thou art middful of him?" And yet He is a tender loving Spouse who died that we might live.

For Christmas I received the book "Living the Mass" by Desplanques, S. J. It is excellent and has helped much to spur on my flagging spirits. It is hard to live - no, I am not dejected in spirits - apparently they ebb high most the time, in reality, no. There is one thing here that proves most helpful to me - Nature with all its beauties. It is a real tonic to go out into the open and breathe the clean fresh air, behold the Bob-tails that run about in the snow, the squirrels that peek out at ~~you~~ and then scurry off as if you were the divil himself. There are birds of many species and I just love to watch them. Even the lovely fleecy clouds that move about in the sky have a thought to whisper of God and His love. We have a very nice garden, with lilies and roses and bushes - I had it made for the sisters since I came here. We had no place to recreate outside with all the grounds here. In the corner of it is a statue of Our Lady. I made a bargain with here she'd have a prominent place in it, if my plans went through. They did, and she was the first one in it.

We fixed up the old boys' hall for a gym, that was St. Joseph's task, he isn't finished yet but he has done a good job so far. He helps me magnificently in everything I do.

Do you think you will ever be up this way again? I'd sure love to see you, it seems there are so many things you'd understand that others do not. But then that is precisely where faith comes in, Seeing Him, when we cannot see humanly speaking. Then too, faith is so much more sure. The more I go, the less I want anything that is not purely God. I have suffered many things I cannot write about. God really has me in the dust, I must look to Him with complete trust in my helplessness. It seems to me I could talk my soul out if you were near, but you are not, so I will content myself with what has already been written, and thank Him for the opportunity to do that.

In your great fervor please continue to remember my needy soul. Your Paternal kindness will never be forgotten. May you be blessed in your wonderful work for God, and may He sustain you in all your trials.

Prayerfully,

Your spiritual daughter,

Precious Blood*

Rev. dear Father Aloysius,

I beg your pardon for not having the report you asked for ready sooner, and hope it meets with your approval .

Have you wondered why I haven't written you lately ? I am not sure myself, but one reason has been many times that I felt you were too busy or your superiors would object to what I wrote.

Ofcourse many times I feel that I should speak with you about certain spiritual problems , like for instance I have a very hard time to make up my mind to go to confession . Sometimes I wait 3-4 weeks before I go, although I have the opportunity to go during mass almost every morning. Here I always find the excuse that I should devote my whole self to Holy Mass and the preparation for Holy Communion. But right now I find it so hard to know what to confess. I have told you my very sad problem in my marriage, because my husband is not willing to act according to the Will of God . This is becoming a greater suffering for me every day, because more and more I realize how much Our dear Lord is offended, and I am the tool that is used to do it . Can you see how terrible that is for me? And when I act passive like I have been told in confession to act, my husband tells me, I am a good housekeeper but not a good wife. So this is naturally my biggest intention , outside the Guild's for the Masses, because Our Lord must stop to be so grievously offended in my home. I love Him so much and want to please Him in all things, and I can't even keep my own family from hurting Him . I have offered all my suffering in the last two months in reparation for these sins and to save the soul of my husband. He continually interprets the laws of the church and God to suit his own needs, and thinks he is excused because he has had 6 children. I told him that I would rather die than to offend our Lord in this way. He respects me a little for this and treats me much better, but he can not understand why I can't see it his way. Please help me Father !!

Now I will tell you how very good Our dearest Lord has been to me , also our dear Blessed Mother. Even though I do not deserve it they are teaching me in the most wonderful way and consoling me also. Holy Mass and Holy Communion are such a wonderful consolation for me, so that I am willing to promise them anything as long as they give me the strength. I only have to think of Holy Mass going on somewhere in the world and I find myself lifted in the most wonderful way, that makes me feel that I am really taking part in it. In this way ofcourse I often make a spiritual Holy Communion, which is always such a source of consolation and strength for me . I understand more and more to offer my dispositions with those of Our dear Lord during Holy Mass like you have taught us .

I thought as my director you would like to know what is happening to me spiritually ?

Could I burden you with a little with my childrens problems ? Thank you . Johnnie who is graduating from Highschool in June is having a real struggle with himself because he has to decide what he will do in the future. Sometimes he feels the urge to become a priest, and he has really been earnestly praying for the grace. Yet he also realizes how much he would have to change his way of living. I think he is considering the Carmelites if the priesthood at all. Could it be that my prayers for vocations in my family could be shifted to Johnnie, who has caused me the most worry in the last two years. At least he is generous and humble and very childlike in his relationship to God. He is trying to practice what you told us during the last meeting; that we should never look back and say; God can not love me, because of what I have done in the past. It seemed to help him a lot when I told him that he could make a fresh start every hour, or as often as he wanted to. May I please ask you to pray for him. Our Lord saw fit the last week to put him in bed sick.-

Aloysius is still unsettled in his third year at Loyola. He told me the other day, that it bothers him more and more to see sin in Motion pictures, television, and at work. That is a good sign, isn't it?

Cecilia considers herself engaged to a young man who is in Korea. At the present time he is taking instructions to become a catholic. He wants to marry her when he gets back this fall or winter, but she is willing to wait a little longer, because he will have to stay in the service another $2\frac{1}{2}$ years, although he will be stationed in the U.S. I have asked the Blessed Mother to lead both young people according to the will of her Divine Son. Yet this is ofcourse another one of my mass intentions, please.--

The two youngest children are good, but very lively. Maria is a good and morally strong child; the nuns in C.G.H. like her very much. Perhaps we will have a vocation in her. Yet she is only 15 $\frac{1}{2}$. There is plenty of time.

Thank you so very much, dear Father for letting me tell you all of this. This makes it seem like old times.-

May Our dear Lord and His Most beloved Mother bless you in a special way for being so kind to us. This is my constant prayer at Mass and Holy Communion.

Most Kind regards in the Immaculate Heart of Mary your devoted spir. daughter Maria.

P.S. Please excuse the type written letter. It goes so much faster.

*Thank you for your prayers they helped already. I feel stronger

In Flight
ON THE MAINLINER

February 23, 1952.

Rev. Aloysius Ellacuria, C.M.F.,
Immaculate Heart Novitiate,
Los Angeles, California.

Rev. dear Father:

I wanted to write to you before this, particularly before the anniversary of the death of your dear mother. I had her enrolled in three novenas of Masses which will be said each month for a year at La Salette shrines. I prayed especially for her on the anniversary of her death.

Thank you for your letter. I have been waiting for more news from you but I know that you are kept busy.

Christmas this past year was one of the happiest I have ever had. Through the prayers of my own dear mother, God granted me many and special graces on that day. I had the privilege of preparing two of our girls for baptism before Christmas; at the procession to the crib before Midnight Mass, the older girl, a junior in high school portrayed the part of our Blessed Mother, the younger, an eighth grader carried the Infant. At Communion time, both girls approached the altar led by one of their classmates dressed as St. Gabriel and in company with several others dressed as angels. It was a most beautiful sight - and it was such a privilege to have these two pure souls to offer to our Infant King. The entire day of Christmas was spent in close union with our dear Lord; I had the privilege of attending seven Masses; of making almost two hours of adoration before midnight Mass, one during the afternoon and then we had Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. It was a day of Heaven and I enjoyed the most perfect peace of soul I have ever experienced. This peace seemed to be a very special grace from God; at least, I considered it so and was deeply grateful for it. It lasted for several weeks - would that it remained permanent, but perhaps that is asking for too much from our dear Lord.

My health has been much better this year - and things have gone very much better spiritually, too. God has been very, very good to me in spite of all my weakness and frailty. I have tried to give Him all and I have tried to live the chief resolution of my retreat of last summer, that of giving Him my thought life and of trying to block out of my life everything that would disturb my peace of soul and union with Him. As you may well surmise, Father, I have not kept the resolution perfectly. I have tried and I feel that I have made some progress but I know that there is yet much to be done. Father Robb, our retreat master of last summer, advised a little formula which if carried out honestly and sincerely, will aid one to give Him all. His little formula is the following: when contradictions, difficulties, temptations, anything which might upset or disturb the soul arise, the soul is immediately to say: "My Jesus, I thank You for this opportunity to prove my love to you; I shall offer it entirely to You." I realize that this is only what you have so often told me, Father; to abandon all to Him, to trust in Him and to confide all to Him.

As Lent is almost here, the question of what I am going to give our dear Lord is uppermost in my mind. I do wish to be faithful and to be generous. I am renewing my retreat resolutions, particularly that of giving Him my thought life, I shall observe the prescribed fast if I am given permission, and I shall do my utmost to observe my rule in its entirety. For the past year or more, I have not been too much with the community for regular prayers; sometimes this has been because of health, and sometimes because of work. I find that frequently I am only too eager to find excuses to absent myself from community prayers and exercises. I have not been too faithful to retiring promptly at night, nor of rising promptly at regular times. I have been given permission to rest in the mornings but even with this, I have not been too exact about rising at the prescribed time although I have been given to take as much rest as I could. I wish that I could arise with the community at five - if given permission, I shall try to do so.

I would appreciate your prayers for special intentions, Father, in regard to some problems concerning the community. I do not like to put these things in writing but I would appreciate your asking the Holy Spirit to guide me aright in them. Our Very Rev. Mother General arrived in Chicago this morning and we had reception for her in Beaverville today. She is here to make her visitation of the province. Many problems have arisen and I know they will be made known to her. Just how much I should state in my visit to her is a problem to me. Mother Rose Mary's illness has had its effect upon her; she is not as keen as she was in regard to the problems of the province nor is she able to understand the difficulties of the Sisters as she did formerly. This creates its own problems, too.

In Flight

ON THE MAINLINER

I don't know if you have had any recent news of Sister Mary Mediatrix or not. Last summer after the retreat, the July one here at Momence, Rev. Mother named Sister to go to St. Gall's and help a little there with the cooking. Sister's condition gradually became worse; she was unable to hold herself erect; the paralysis seemed to be climbing upward; it was pitiful to see her. She was taken back to St. Mary's and was in bed for weeks. She could not stand up for any length of time at all. Finally it was decided that she return to Mercy Hospital in Chicago to see the brain specialist whom she had seen before. It seemed necessary for surgery again. Sister has just returned to Kankakee from Mercy where the doctor found her much better than he ever had found her; he said that no surgery was needed now. I haven't seen Sister since her return from Chicago but I have seen her several times during the past year. Sister has always been grateful to me because at the time of her perpetual vows, I was able to give her a little hope and consolation. I always recall that you have told me in the past, Father; to do all I could to ~~give~~ help her in any way. God has asked much of her but He was so good to her during the retreat last summer. She gained such intimate union with Him then that she simply radiated Him to anyone who came near her; one felt that truly she was living the Mass in her complete immolation to Him. It gave me such a thrill to see her in these dispositions for it has not always been so with her the past few years. I am anxious to see her again.

Would you have any suggestions to ~~give~~ me, Father, for Lent? I might add that I shall try to refrain from complaints of any kind; frequently I find myself complaining easily. The fast of Lent will give me opportunity for mortification and I know that I need this. I pray daily for the grace of peace of soul, for the grace of contemplation, for humility, confidence, obedience, conformity to God's will, fortitude and generosity. The peace of soul and the deep union with Him which I enjoyed Christmas day and for several weeks seemed almost like the great grace of contemplation. Will it ever come, Father? It was so difficult to go from this peace and calm of soul and cessation of activity back into the rush of daily life with all its demands. The demands upon my time and energy seem to increase rather than decrease. The children are now so much more difficult to handle than formerly; then, too, many difficulties arise with the Sisters because of their lack of tact and understanding with the children; this has

has been most difficult. I am now in the midst of preparing the summer schedule for the Sisters and a spring festival for the benefit of the academy. I did not feel equal to this last year and since God has given me better health this year, I wanted to do what I could although I know the drain it will mean on my health, my energy and my time. Please ask our dear Lord to give me the grace of generosity with Him.

I had not intended to write at such length today, Father, but I am not sorry that I did. We begin Forty Hours' devotion in our chapel to-morrow morning so you may be certain of a special memento in my prayers, my visits and my hours of adoration. I beg your blessing and your prayers, Father. I trust that you will write when you can. You are remembered constantly in my prayers. I only wish that I could have the opportunity of a good talk with you at times. I know that you would make me see things in the right light and would help me to be generous with God.

Dear Fr. Abeyine,

It has been a very long time since I have heard from you. I saw you at Fr. Ripero's funeral, but your holy modesty kept your eyes from saying "hello" as we stood but a few feet apart at Fr. Ripero's grave.

These few words are written for two reasons. First Aubert is the proud father of a 3rd child - a baby boy born Feb. 19, whose name will be Benedict-Marie! Would you be so kind as to consecrate the child to our Blessed Mother on March 25 during your holy month. Aubert would appreciate this very much.

The second reason for this "reserved letter" is because I wish to seek your help - my soul, it seems is undergoing some kind of a "dark night" for I am plagued by scruples, and frequent confession is not rare to me, especially since I have even gone to confession twice in a day. I accept this as a punishment for my many past infidelities. I seem to see my sins "ever before my eyes" and it does depress me at times. Actions done imprudently long ago come back to me and annoy me with the thoughts: did I have a bad intention when doing such a thing? And if I did, did I ever repent it? It seems that my love of God is degenerating (?) into fear. I never dreamt that I would become a victim of fear when I fully realize that God has given me a nature particularly devoted to love.

Discouragement visits me quite often, as I see the sacred priesthood drawing near and then desire incompatible with a celibate life come to me! This saddens me for I think: if I have such desire then perhaps I better not accept Holy Orders if it is offered to me for I may not have a vocation; or else I may have lost it by undue love for creatures.

The trial of obedience which the other fellows are undergoing due to their dislike for their Rel. Perfect does not affect me. I have been doing my best to follow your advice concerning obedience. Altho I also dislike the way I am told things, still I do my best to see and hear God in my superiors. Oh, I fall from my ideal by criticism now and then, but I can't truly say this is rare. God has given me much peace in regards to being obedient. But this doctrine, this abandonment by God is a hard trial, one I can't understand, and it makes me doubt if I have a freely vocation. Father what shall I do? How or rather, what do you think? I will be praying that God will enlighten you to help me as He may desire.

You need not worry about writing to me since Fr. Lapierre has given the inspection of letters to Fr. Bepert. All reserved letters are given to Father to mail. You may answer me by sealing the first envelope and putting my name with "reserved mail" or "confidential advice" on it also. Then address the second envelope to Father Bepert. If you deem it more prudent not to do this then I will understand and continue doing my best to bear this trial, seeing that God does not even wish you to assist me in bearing this cross.

Rose Sheltre entered the Im. Most Sister last September 15. So far she still has recovered. Please continue praying that she may do so until death.

Kathleen Shelby has undergone many head operations. It seems as if she is recovering slowly but surely. Do you believe she will be entirely cured Father? Is it God's will? She suffers so much to her parents. Her mother's faith is great, and her father, being so introspective suffers so much within and does not wish to unburden himself to a friend, so it seems to me to keep these good people in your prayers, my family also. Paul sends

Father Aloysius
Immaculate Heart Novitiate
Los Angeles, California

Dear Father Aloysius,

Thank you for your letter, and especially for your prayers and mementos. You always seem to write us just when we are in need of a little encouragement.

We are very grateful for your prayers, for we continue to have many problems. Our collections have been better and we have been able to pay off a good portion of our debts, thank God, but a good deal still remains.

We now have a grave problem facing us with regard to the hospitals Blue Cross Plan in Montana. The Physicians Service and Blue Cross have been combined here, working in the same office. The Physicians Service has accumulated a very large financial reserve, and the Blue Cross is "running on the rim" so to speak --- altho the same Director has managed both Plans.

Taking advantage of our precarious financial situation (or so it would seem), the Doctors have served notice on us, stating that they wish to sell an insurance plan of their own. A joint-board meeting of the two Plans is to be held this coming Friday evening - March 7 - and a Hospital meeting will follow the next day. The hospitals will be forced to decide what they will do - whether they will give up the Blue Cross Plan entirely in favor of the doctors' new proposed Plan, or whether they will try to continue with the Blue Cross Plan as it was originally - apart from the Doctors and with offices of their own.

We need your prayers - first, that the hospitals will remain united, particularly the Sisters hospitals, and second, that we have the right leadership. Sisters naturally look to doctors for guidance and seem afraid to oppose them, even tho at times that is necessary.

Pray for us, please, so that if it be God's Will that the Blue Cross should remain in Montana -- this affects the whole State and thousands of subscribers -- the Hospital Administrators may be inspired with the right thing to do and say.

You probably do not write during lent. No matter. It is your prayers that we need. Please pray hard, particularly on Friday evening and all day Saturday.

We have a picture of the Immaculate Heart of Mary in our office which I begged from Sister Victoria. She seems to have worked miracles of grace for us - for I have noticed a marked change in our collections since I placed her on my desk. She is doing other things for us, too, I know. I have placed our Blue Cross problem in this Immaculate Heart and feel that you will do likewise. Pray hard.

Gratefully,

Sister Eugenia

PS: Sister Victoria sends you the enclosed check in honor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Sister also wishes to thank you and to send her kindest regards.

Reverend and dear Father:

Enclosed you will find a circular letter from our General Government in Rome. According to the instructions given therein, let it be read to the Community.

In order to comply with their request, the Provincial Government suggest that you hold a local chapter to decide how much extra your Community may contribute towards the Votive Temple and when you will forward that amount to the Provincial Office. This contribution is not to be taken from the funds of the House which already belong to the Congregation.

Hoping to hear from you soon,

Mr. Marcos Abouaf, salesman at Courtesy Chevrolet was unable to transact the proposed offer of $1,100.00 for a new car because $175.00 worth of additional repairs were discovered in our present Plymouth.

Father Bossi said that a deal around $1,300.00 would be satisfactory. These are the two best offers we have had:

- 1) A 1952 Chevrolet will cost $1285.00 plus our car. They will give us $60.00 worth of accessories and a 25 per cent discount on any parts that we buy there in the future.
- 2) A 1952 Plymouth will cost $1320.00 without accessories.

Dear Father,

You helped Dick ^{Harrigan} over many temptations in the Novitiate. I think he needs your help again. I don't know whether you have much contact with ^{him} ~~him~~ or that that would be possible. But I am taking a chance that you may be able to do something for him. I received a letter from him today and he says he "has not become any more settled since his first Profession". These doubts about whether he is doing what God wants him to do evidently are still bothering him.

Perhaps I shouldn't be burdening you with this matter but I know in my religious life I have sought the aid of my Novice Mistress many times. Again I am taking a chance that the same privilege is made use of in your Community. At least I can recommend him to your prayers. What I wouldn't give to see him and talk with him! But perhaps by supernaturalizing that desire I can help ^{him} be faithful to the grace God is holding for him. I have written him but it is difficult to know if what you say is the right approach. Many things are gained by prayer and sacrifice. I think that that is my part in this plan of God.

If there is anything else that I can do to help Dick please let me know. Naturally, the rest of the family are ignorant of any of this. His letters to them are very cheerful and religious-like.

Thank you Father, for all you have done for Dick in the past. Also for your patience in reading through this epistle. Be assured of a special daily remembrance in my prayers.

Dear Father Aloysius,

I am inclosing seven dollars as an offering for Low Masses to be said, by you, if possible, for my spiritual needs.

Many and great have been my crosses these past few months.

Misunderstandings and jealousy!

My loss of confidence in myself and others has brought discouragement and depression.

If only I knew the answer — am I to blame or, is it for purification? I can not judge. I am too confused and depressed. Pray for me. Somehow

I feel so abandoned — so alone! Frankly, I don't know what to say to you. Once again, I trust in your prayers.

Often I thank God for His goodness to me last summer - His permitting you to be the great solace you were

May I ask your prayers for me, Father, that I be more generous with God? If it is convenient for you, I should like a Mass offered on the feast of St. Timothy for my spiritual growth. If it is impossible then - whenever convenient will be satisfactory.

God love you always!

Dear Father Aloysius:

Our Fr. Master was happy to receive your very nice letter and has given me the necessary information in order to write the testimonial letter in regard to Martin Wurth.

Martin Wurth was with us from July 1949 to August 1950. He is certainly a very good and sincere soul. He is very quiet and keeps the rule excellently. One slight moral defect is or rather was noticeable in him while here and that is a tendency to indecision. It seems he has had this from his early years but we do not feel that it is serious or difficult to correct for he is very docile and obedient.

The main reason why he left here was because of his health as he has surely informed you. He had one fainting spell which we did not think much of and he got over the indisposition resulting from it in a day or two. But about a week later he had another spell. He had just gotten outside of our church when he fainted and ~~hit~~ his head on the tile covered cement floor. We sent him to the hospital as he did not regain consciousness. The doctor said that he had a hemorrhage in the head and that he had an enlarged vein that was weak. The restrictions required of him by the doctor hardly fit in with our life so he saw that there was nothing to do but to leave as much as he regretted to do so.

Since then he has been in good health and has been living a normal life without trouble. He wrote later on that a doctor he had gone to told him that the only way to be sure of the former diagnosis would be to open his head and have a look at it, which, of course, wouldn't be very practical.

If your life isn't too strenuous, I would be happy to see him given a chance. I have confident hope that he would make good. If anything of his former illness recurred, it would, so it seems to us, mean the end of the religious life for him. Keep us in your fervent prayers.

Fraternally in Our Lady,

ADDRESS OF MSGR. LARRAONA
PREFECT OF THE SACRED CONGREGATION OF RELIGIOUS GETHSEMANI, AUGUST 20, 1952

Right Reverend Father, my Reverend Fathers and dear brothers:
We believe in the Providence of God, in which there are three Divine attributes, namely Wisdom, Power and Goodness. Jesus has said that not even one hair would fall from our heads without our heavenly Father's permission. You might say that all things in each one of our lives are ordered and coordinated by it, and so I believe that it is this sweet Providence of God, which today on the feast of your sweet St. Bernard, that brings me from Rome to say a few words in the name of Holy Mother the Church. I speak not not only for your benefit and consolation, but for my own as well. I truly believe that you are, and that you represent a phenomenon which not only embraces this great and immense land of America, but the entire Church. And I have seen too that the Church is interested and desirous that your movement should become more intense continue in its course and produce its fruits. And so She comes, in my person, to tell you of her joy and to bring Her maternal words.

Tomorrow I shall speak of the Contemplative life.

Today when I came with your dear Reverend Father, I remembered a saying of that great Abbot of Sept-Fructs, Dom Chautard, whom you all know. I knew him from La Trappe. I knew Dom Chautard very well. He once wrote that, those who think the Cistercian life is only a cumulus of ascetical disciplinary measures, or exterior, harsh and crude rules are mistaken. There is much more to it than that. He said that it is a Cistercian labour. It is not a light thing but a serious matter when you feign a duty, when you make a mistake in choir and when you are not always in the presence of God with a complete and total prostration, which is our duty as creatures and sons.....but see, this is very human.

If we remove the Corpus from the cross, it becomes something that frightens us. But if we keep the body of Christ nailed to the cross, we then have the soul of the Cistercian life.

The sincere, profound and personal love that St. Bernard had for Our Lord and His Mother gives us the true spirit of the Cistercian life. How well St. Bernard understood that the Incarnation is a fact, that God became Man, that He is true God and truly a Man.

We should have all this in mind when we are in choir, for He is the Human Ideal, a Man we do not find just anywhere, a Man we love and to whom we are united to by necessity. What a sin that we do not know Him! We often forget that He has a name! He is called Jesus, who is God, the perfect God but who is at the same time perfect Man. He is God in such a way that He did not appear to be Man, and Man in such a way that He did not appear to be God. This is because He was at the same time perfect Man and perfect God.

Time will not allow me to speak too long today, so I shall only speak of the religious life under three aspects.

There is first the aspect of consecration, in which we consecrate ourselves to God in a spirit of truth, which fills up and unites and elevates our entire life to God. It unites us not only to God the Creator, but to God the Father. "Remember" says St. Thomas, "that the virtue of Religion is intimately ^{UNITED} to the Theological virtues of Charity." It is the closest of the Moral Virtues because our religion is essentially filial----Our Father ! How comforting it is for us to say to God, "Our Father, Who art in heaven, I know that ^{THOU} art Omnipotent, omniscient, that Thou art Goodness and that Thou art mine because this ineffable and great grace is a gift."

The Apostle has said, "When everything that is in us is revealed, that will be heaven" How comforting it is for us to recall this fact, yes even you the youngest novice, when reciting our public prayers in the name of Holy Mother the Church and to remember that in the old and solemn liturgy of the pontificate, the Breviary was given to monks as their proper instrument of prayer. How consoling it is to give God ~~the~~ that unceasing worship that is due Him.

See now, virtue consists in commencing our paradise today. What we will sing there later, let us begin to sing here and now. Sing it sweetly! Sing it for yourselves and for all mankind ! Sing to the Lord Jesus, and thus we shall return to God united to Jesus, by doing what Jesus did. And recall to mind that beautiful Human soul that St. Ignatius sang of in the "Anima Christi". With our souls united to that soul, which is Jesus, we must give God, in perpetual adoration, that worship which is indeed owed to Him.

St. Paul said that Jesus ~~is the~~ recapitulates all creatures and that we who are the recapitulation of all creatures sing to God when we are united to Jesus. The religious life is then first of all a consecration. It is a consecration by which all our acts be they small or great, material or spiritual sing to God the Father in that perennial praise which is indeed a song---"Through Him and with Him and in Him is to Thee God the Father almighty, in the unity of the Holy Ghost, all honor and glory."

How well St. Bernard felt this ! How he sang the Divine praises with himself and with Jesus ! What a wonderful and consecrated life his was ! It was a life in which all things formed a unity. It was a life in which all things were done as a profound perfume of prayers and praises for God. And how lovingly God kept and cherished that filial life, that life which still makes us do everything as his sons, united to that only begotten Son who became the first born among us. The first thing a Cistercian must be then, is a good follower of St. Bernard.

In concluding the first aspect of the religious life we must remember that we must be not only the man of prayer who always prays and prays in all things and makes everything a prayer, but we must become like prayer made man. For truly, it is by the "Per Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum Filium tuum, qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus, per omnia saecula saeculorum. Amen." that we are united and fused, not confused but really fused.

We know then that the first aspect of the consecrated life is consecration through Him, consecration with Him and consecration in Him, so that Jesus may conquer and possess us and take us to the Father.

The second point is that the religious life is a life of perfection. And let us not get the means mixed up with the end. St. Paul said, "Omnia autem vestra sunt, vos autem Christi". Recall how St. Bernard gave a Christlike character to his life.

In developing this second point, I would like to tell you a story that my saintly novicemaster enjoyed relating to us. It went this way; A young man who was very virtuous once presented himself to Christ--"Intuitus eum, dilexit eum"--and Jesus looked into his eyes. This showed that he had always done his duties and observed the Commandments. Jesus loved the youth because he had never betrayed Him. The young man asked:

"What should I do to save myself?"

"Keep the Commandments"

"But which ones?"

And so Jesus patiently told him.

"But I have always kept them. What else must I do?"

And how our Lord responded!

"So you want to be perfect and lack nothing?"

"I want to be perfect!"

"The perfect man is the one who lacks nothing here."

"And how can I be perfect?"

"The first thing to do is to go and sell all your goods, and to take all those things which make it impossible for you to be similar to Me and renounce them. And now follow Me."

Jesus then invited the young man to live the common life with Himself as if he were an Apostle.

Recall how St. Bernard had this deep in his heart and mind. "For me to be perfect is to be Christ, to think with Christ by faith, to have His thoughts". Therefore you must love with Christ as the apostle often said: "I feel with the feelings of Christ, and reproduce Christ as my ~~model~~ model in such a way that He is truly the life of my life." He is Perfection!

Keep this in mind however--never confuse the means with the end. Let not our acts in all our undertakings be mere material actions, so that the spirit is lacking. All things should be done in a manner that makes us similar to Christ, so that Christ may come into our lives. He who does not understand this is not a Cistercian! Indeed he lacks a soul! He is nothing more than a beautiful corpse in the religious life. What a sad thing.

How beautiful the religious life is, and how perfect a thing it is when the silence is loved, the modesty kept, the ceremonies are well performed, and when all things are done in such a way that we are not only helped on but penetrated by them.

Remember too, that St. Bernard says that perfection in its second aspect of the religious life is not something vague, with respect to the life of Christ, which necessarily ^{must} become our life.

Listen to the last idea, why does Our Lord want us to be united to Himself to render worship to the Father? Why does Jesus want ~~us~~ to reproduce His life in us? The answer is so that we may be one with Him, united to Him, in conformity with Him and fused to Him. When with Christ we reproduce Christ in us, we are fused to the Father--we are "alter Christus". And how well we can apply this to St. Bernard.

Today on the feast of your great St. Bernard, when you recall the events in his life remember that his life is your life. Remember that united to Jesus you will be truly consecrated souls, united to Jesus you will be perfect souls, united to Jesus you will be other Christs! Jesus is the complete ideal!

Remember too that we are by grace and extension of the life of Christ, and that Jesus was so faithful to His ideal, that He has given us His own Mother as if she were our own mother. Do not forget that by grace we are brothers of Jesus, therefore His Mother is ours also. How beautiful the logic of grace is!

How keenly St. Bernard felt this! Recall his wonderful and famous words: "All my hope is and will be in her."

St. Paul said, "You have many teachers in Christ, but you have one Father while Christ is formed in you."

Our Lady can say: "You have many persons who will watch over you, but I am truly your Mother if you form Christ in yourself."

In closing I will say that a Cistercian who says and proclaims that he will keep the true traditions of St. Bernard intact, must be a great lover of Mary. This reminds me of one of my very good friends who is now a member of the active apostolate. He once dreamed of living the life of a Trappist and so he tried it. The Lord did not give him the grace to stay, and returned him to his active life in the world. He could not resist telling me: "How good the hard life of a Trappist was. It was bearable for me because I sang the 'Salve Regina' at the end of the day, I knew then that she was truly my strength."

So my dear ones, on this feast of St. Bernard I came to tell you in the name of Holy Mother the Church--"Be Cistercians 100 o/o."

In this way, when you are in Jesus, with Him and by Him, be consecrated souls, be perfect souls, saintly souls !

Do we not invoke Our Lady in the Litanies as "Virgo Fidelis" ? Dom Marmion, that great monk said that "fidelity is the perfume of love." Be faithful then like a rose for fidelity is the perfume of the rose. Let us make our fidelity to Christ beautiful, centered with the love of His Mother--Our Own Mother.

Dearest Father of my soul in Jesus and Mary:

Let me use some moments of this busy life to talk to you by written word, as I cannot do it otherwise. Oh, how my poor soul would appreciate the chance to see and chat with you at length about the most important problems of our life. On the other hand I feel very happy following the Will of God who so lovingly has ordained everything to be as they are at the present. I shall confess it to you alone:-at despite of being so imperfect and miserable, I have found already the only way for true human happiness-the way of the Cross-the way of Love-the Holy Will of God. Is not this an extraordinary present of the infinite goodness of our heavenly Father? How thankful must I be to HIM!

I have been really amazed seeing and experiencing the heavenly Father's Love working most wondrously in my own soul as well as in souls of others. It was just on August 22-Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, our dearest Mother, that my desires to see the CORDIMARIAN FILATION established in the States became happy reality. It was not I -unable to accomplish any good thing- but somebody else who did it. Father I believe it and I feel it this way. And it is not difficult to prove it. All I have to do is to look upon me and inside my soul. It will be a waisting-time story to go again over things you know. As to the present, here are my experiences. It has been for about two weeks that I feel something especial. It is the presence of God pervading this poor being of mine all through. It is a hard thing to be put into words. I haven't been feeling well physically. Just the 23 of August I had to go to the Chacery Office to present a second time a difficult marriage case I had been working in unsuccessfully for about four months. Thanks be to God, it was approved at last. In coming back home by bus, I beging to feel so bad in my head and stomach that I thought I was going to faint. At home I was unable to take anything. I just drunk a glass of bromoseltser and went to bed. But sicknesses, occupations and tiredness are not enough to prevent the perfect functioning of my faculties, and the extraordinary feelings I try to speak about. It is not the first time I have them, as you know, but they are deeper now, and the selfknowledge, taste of the divine presence and the peace produced by them in the soul are much greater. There is no to see-at least in a clear mannner-but to be convinced and to feel deeply the intimate presence of an infinite being outside but mostly inside my soul. It is not clearly, but as it would be hidden in a mist, or as a delicate touch with a light curtain only in between. Wish I have words to explain this better, since I am affraid of errors and misleadings of the enemy. Perhaps you have experienced that also. Thus you will undertand it better as to be able to tell me what is the truth of all this.

Being professor I used to try to understand and explain the mystery of the most Holy Trinity by rational demonstrations. I would not say that I understand it much better now, but yes I feel it. Till not long ago, I had try to cultivate in my heart a special devotion to the Three adorable persons of the most Holy Trinity, particularly to the Son and the Holy Spirit. Now my poor soul has begun to experience a powerful attraction towards the divine person of the Father. He has been so much forgotten! His sole remembrance makes me enjoy sweet and deep emotions my soul never felt before. I guess this is a little of that unspeakable happiness experienced by our Holy Fr. Founder on pronouncing the word "FATHER". Mine cannot be called but a tiny beginning, of course. The same thing I have to confess thinking of our dearest Mother. If you jump in the lake or the sea what can you feel but watter? and if you are immersed-lost in the ocean of Her maternal love, what can you feel but love, sweet love? Oh happy love, oh love divine...to know and to experience what it means to live within the Immaculate Heart of Mary-Mother of God and mine! Dear Father, as I try to write all this my poor heart keeps repeating Mother...and my arms feel daunted so I had to stop three times already. (I got to recover a little from a short distraction). Because of my many and great imperfections and my beig such a bad son to HIM and to HER I some times think that all this must be an illusion or a trick of the devil. But it comes to mind that St. Theresa knew how imperfect souls can receive extraordinary favors from heaven. Besides I use to feel a deep interior assurance that it is from God. At least the effects seem to be very profitable to my soul. Though still I am at times a little affraid of the snares of the enemy. Can you tell me please how should I behave in all these occasions? ~~Shall~~ I let my heart to be taken awy by this love? or do you want me to flyaway from it? And if I am in somebody else's company how should I act?

Going back again to that about the Cordimarian Filiation I cannot but say that it was the Immaculate Heart of our Blessed Mother herself the real establissher of the Institute here. Besides the external examination of facts I have an interior assurance so strong that it would be very difficult for anybody-except my Director-to make me believe otherwise. She selected the girls. She has given the start. And She will continue on blessing it and providing for it everyday more. This is what causes me to be confident on the perpetual permanency and the spreading of the Institute throughout all the States dispite of all the difficulties it will have to meet with. Thousands of saintly souls shall go to heaven from these United States following this unique way of the Immaculate Heart of Mary. I don't know how I say these things, but I see them this way, and I feel that I have to tell you everything as I see it, though I might be mistaken.

About the middle of August Fr. Cecere offered me to preach the Exercices to the Community of St. Jude's Seminary. That I couldn't accept because of being a little tired and busy with things of the Parish, the Cordimarian Filiation and the arrangements for the Parish Carnival, and because of my deficient English. The carnival closed up yesterday. Now we begin to be at peace. Thanks be to God!

Sometime this month I hope to be able to dispose of a free week to practice my semi-annual retreat. Though I expect to have some days before to get a little rest. The full account of this past year will be fowarded to you whenever it is ready.

Send me once more your holy blessing and keep me in your prayers.

Yours truly in C.D. M.

Dear Father -

This is an offering - and I wish it were many times more! It is a real joy to make my donation.

I look forward to seeing you this week. We are making progress I know - I see it so clearly when I think of the situation as it was several months ago, and as it is now. Bad habits of thought and reaction are stubborn and hard to break and so there are set-backs at times. Nothing matters however if we progress in the right way.

The prayers and the aspirations you gave me are great strengtheners and great safeguards. And so I look forward to seeing you and praying there in the chapel where so many prayers have gone up for us and have been heard.

Thank you Father. I am so grateful for this help - this strength and inspiration.

Sincerely, in Christ.

To the Local Government:

The water heater supplying the novices shower room (in the basement of the chapel building) is broken so that there are now no facilities for the novices to take showers.

The water heater is beyond repair and a new one needs to be purchased. In May of this year the water heater in the novices dormitory was replaced by the Bear State Plumbing Co. Their price including installation was $114.00 for a 40 gallon heater. This was the lowest of bids submitted to us.

We would like to ask permission to have a new heater installed by this Company to replace the broken one.

Humbly submitted for approval,

Dear Father Aloisius,

Sister Noel and Sister Mary Grace have told us of your great devotion to Our Blessed Mother. It is because of that that I am asking for your advice in this matter, for I feel that you would know more perfectly what Our Lady would wish in this case.

My brother-in-law is suffering from lympho-sarcoma - Hodgkins Disease - . He will be twenty-nine years old in December. He is a truly practical Catholic in all the phases of his life. His resignation to God's Will in his regard is awe-inspiring. While they are praying for a cure, they are completely abandoned to His Will. This is their problem, Father. My other sister and her husband have given them the money for Jim to go to Lourdes. Jim says he is not sure it is right for him to spend all that money to go to Lourdes when he can pray to Our Lady in his own parish church in Fresno. He feels it would be better - and more in the true interests of Our Lady - to spend the money educating a priest for Mary - and stay here and trust that she will obtain a cure for him, if it be God's Will. On the other hand, Lourdes seems to be a spot especially in Mary's favor, so they are not sure which course of action would please Our Lady more.

My sister has already promised to attend Mass everyday and to receive Holy Communion daily, if possible, - and she gives her daily Masses and Holy Communion to Our Blessed Mother to "spend" as she wishes - if only Our Lady would cure Jimmy.

They have been married only five and a half years, Father. They have one adopted baby, and they would have adopted others except that Jim's condition makes it prohibitive. Jim is a lawyer who was doing - and could do - so much for the Church. There are very few men so ready to meet Our God, if that be His Will. And although his death would be very hard on my sister, she has enough faith and love and trust that this greatest sacrifice would only been seen through God's Eyes.

I am sorry for taking so much of your time - but here you have our problem. Could you please find time to write to me soon and tell me what you think Our Lady would want Jimmy to do? And, Father, if I could persuade them to go to Los Angeles, would you please bless Jim? I hope this isn't too much of an imposition on you, Father. I shall pray for you and my sister will, too, I know. If you knew her, I feel you would value her prayers for she is so much like Our Lady.

My dearest Father in Jesus and Mary:

It was after the things of the Canonical Visitation were over that I have been busy writing you an "spiritual relation". It is almost complete on scratch paper, but a phone-call this afternoon told me to get ready to leave for California to attend the blessing of the new College. It was a promise of Very Rev. Fr. Provincial before he left.

See then -my dear Father- how good is our Lord to me. I shall be most happy to see you again and talk to you about many things - some of them believe to be very important.

In order to be able to do it better, I want to request from you the charity of A ROOM in that Holy House, for the few days I am planning to be there around. I will be off to-morrow, together with Fr. De. Prada. Hope to be able to sleep in your House Friday night.

Seeing you soon - Thanks be to Jesus, Mary and Joseph.

Meanwhile, I am as ever whole yours

SPIRITUAL ACCOUNT - October 31, 1952

Rev. Fr. A. Ellecuria, C.M.F.
Los Angeles, Calif.

Dearest Father in Jesus and Mary:

Let me use a few minutes to chat with you as spiritual son who wants to be good. Sorry I cannot keep my spiritual diary because of the many little things to be done. But with the help of God I will try to bring forth to you faithfully everything which is in my poor memory.

Nothing special has happened as to my spiritual life, since my last letter to you. Besides those intimate experiences of which you were told, all I took with me from the month of August was tiredness. So, the very understanding Fr. Superior gave me general permission to get up a half hour later in the morning-which I have been using most of the time.

September has been rather peaceful. Still from the 14 to the 19-Fr. Superior being out of town to make his semi-annual retreat-I had to take over again the care of the whole Vicariate. In coming back he gave me two weeks of Vacation. Taking up his generous word I left for Momence on the 29 to begin my week of retreat. On October 4 at noon time I was back again to help around here. The plan was for me to return to Momence the following day in the evening for the second week of Vacation. In truth my idea was to get in to some peaceful place where to pray and do some important writing, which I find hard to do here. But then I saw Fr. Superior feeling bad physically, so I decided to renounce to that outing, and to remain here doing my best in everything. Then also we heard of Fr. Provincial's coming for the Visitation, which meant for me more work to keep busy with.

It was something unexpected and almost unbelievable-for unworldliness and inexperience on my side-until it came to happen. Say that the Very Rev. Fr. couldn't find any body else to serve as his Secretary during the Canonical Visitation to the houses up here in Illinois. So he just called me up and ask me to do that job for him. My only excuse was from my inexperience. But he replied that he would be my guide. I couldn't deny myself-I know how much he has to suffer. Certainly I tried my best on helping him. He also helped me a great deal, because he told me how to examine the various kinds of books, and before I wrote anything in them I always presented it to him for correction and advice. I am most sorry for the possible mistakes on that. But I feel most happy for he gave me his holy blessing the afternoon before he left for San Antonio, Texas.

I invited him to meet the Postulants of the C.F. He kindly did so on October 12. He spoke to them. He encouraged us all to go ahead for love of Jesus and the Immaculate H. of the Blessed Mother. He ended the meeting with his holy blessing upon everyone of us.

Going back again to that of the retreat I feel that it was a profitable one. More profitable than those made in commun, I should say. To sum up and that you may grasp an idea of my soul's activity during those days, here follow the timetable which I tried to keep and the resolutions taken for the immediated future.

RESOLUTIONS

- 1) To say nothing which either directly or indirectly would harm my neighbour's fame.--God curses the murmurer and gossiper.
- 2) Not to speak of myself or about things of mine, unless the Glory of God requires it necessarily.
- 3) To try to make my meditation better.
- 4) To kill right away any movement of impatience. -- God is immutable.
Be as thy heavenly Father is.

Our Very Rev. Fr. Provincial opened the Canonical Visitation to this Community on the 12 of this month. I was very happy to have with him a long chat on various points important to our religious well-being. I shall hereby mention some of these points, as concerning my personal life and activities.

- a) In regards to the work to be done in this Vicariate for the spiritual welfare of its quasi-abandoned souls, I have in mind the following projects:
- 1-To continue working on the taking of the census.
 - 2-To establish the Arch-Confraternity of the Im.H. of Mary.
 - 3-To establish the Cordimarian Youth for girls and the Claretian Youth for boys.
 - 4-To establish the Children of the Im.H. of Mary for children.
(These will take some time tho, because there is not enough literature in English. I will have to work on this first)
 - 5-I am planning to open soon a Club of Religion, for the Youth of both sexes. Especially for those who didn't go or are not going to catholic School.
 - 6-To begin soon a series of lectures on family life for married and engaged couples.

For all these of course I have to count on Fr. Pastor's approval, who will determine also the place for the gatherings, etc.
Hope other organizations will come after these, until the Mission is perfectly organized, as it is the desire of our Superiors.

- b) Referring to former projects on writing about the spiritual life, the claretian life, and the family life, he said to keep them up and work on them the most I can under the circumstances.--To be able to do that, he gave me oral permission to buy good books on these matters for particular use, with the money I receive now and then from some friends.
- c) Then I told him not to laugh at or curse me, as I remind him of something he said to me before at Dominguez, as to the possibility of getting some degree in any University (Loyola), of Chicago. Naturally, without leaving the jobs and tasks I now have in this place, where I feel very happy to be.--It was not a petition. It was a simple proposal prompted by the desire of giving more effectiveness to my missionary work. Here are some hows:
- It increases the authority and prestige of the Missionary. This helps tremendously to introduce the good ideas everywhere.
 - Gives the chance to introduce yourself into high cultural circles. This can be of great help too.
 - Would give many opportunities to meet good young people, and so be able to get some select vocations for our Seminaries and the Cordimarian Filiation.
 - I don't think it would be difficult there to get acquainted with learn people interested in Spanish. And I want somebody to translate our claretian literature into good English, and also some outsiders able and willing to write about the Claretians and their works, like soem other Orders have.
 - That would prepare you to become professor at the same time that you are assistant. This broadens the road of your activities, while it would for sure increase the material help to the Congregation.
 - Taking appropriate subjects (English, Philosophy, Psychology), I would have a better preparation to write on the matters above-mentioned.

Fr. Said to like the idea, and told me to look for information at the University of Loyola. Then, to forward it to him, that he may decide.

As I said this was a simple proposal inspired by the desire to help souls more and better. So I thought not oposed to your forbidding me to ask and refuse in this and any other matters.

*I need your prayers and holy blessing
Yours heartily in C. O. M.

Dear Fr. Aloysius,

Your cooperation to bring Dad back, is most gratefully appreciated by all of us. We will trustingly persevere until the time has come to give our thanksgiving for returning him to his family and to Christ the King and center of all hearts.

Dad's improvement over the indifferentism of the past, where he felt attached to no one in his "Run-away-world" is shown by his letter of Nov. 4th. "I will never forget all the good times we had together. It was marvelous to see each of you again and all those darling grandchildren" "Please send me a copy of the pictures you took on our trip" "Wish you could get one of all the grandchildren" "My, I am proud of all of you, and wish my work was near you where I could see you often."

For myself, Father, I am deeply interested in getting a job with a Christopher purpose, and leave this functionary job. The Popular music field has fascinated me for many years. I kept track of all the songs on the radio, their lyrics, composers, and popularity. I believe that much is needed in the field to elevate and eliminate toward better and wholesome music and lyrics. Direction even in a very small way would be a for good; to fill hearts with good, instead of forming a vacuum and longing for that which is not good. The direct appeal to millions of hearts is a great power for good or evil. I will appreciate your prayers, guidance, and contacts, if any, in helping me to embark on this new career, where God and His good may be glorified.

Many thanks for your help, and in Our Dearest Mothers name thank you for your encouraging and strengthening message.

God love you and keep you,

I see it is left to me to break the ice that is so very deep however I will humbly do so even my poor shaky hand find it difficult to manage with my pen first of all I did not know where You were, I was relying on Your good Saint Antony M. Claret every time I came to his picture ^{and Yours} along with the little card of the Novena prayer to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I would ask her through her intercession of St. A. M. Claret to please tell me where You were, about a week ago, I met Sr. Maria Cecilia the music teacher and Choir director, saying oh Sister I have been wanting to tell You I met a good friend of Yours this Summer while I was in Los Angeles, I asked her who might it be, she said Father Aloysius Blacuria, oh I said is he still in the same place, I haven't heard from him in many months, I knew he was looking for a place to move his novitiate, that I never heard where they were, Sr. said You are in the same place, well & what happened? didn't You secure a suitable place, oh I think Your boys do not pray enough to Our Lady & St. Antony Claret, I read in one of the Catholic papers of a National Novena to him I made it and put You all

Rev. Father Aloysius.

Dear Rev. Father,

It is such a long time since I wrote to you, but I do not forget you at my daily Mass and Holy Communion.

I had two surprises during the week, - one very pleasant and the other very sad. I had just started writing you the pleasant news, when a phone message disturbed me very much.

A Jewish friend of ours, in his old age now, is fixing his wonderful stamp collection for his only grandson. He inquired if I still wanted more for my collection and I said 'yes', so he sent me a large box full of his duplicates saying that there are many valuable ones among them. Now, since he does not know that I gave that collection to you, I could not ask him which the valuable ones are. Also he bought a boy's collection and after taking the ones he wanted, he gave me the rest. Those are on the cards.

As I never thought I would get another supply from my friend, all the rare stamps I have been getting these last two years, I have been giving them away. I regret very much now that I did not save them for you, but hereafter I shall do so.

It would be advisable to let some one who knows the value of stamps look over them, because last week there was an Ad in the paper, offering $47⁰⁰ for a certain kind of a three-cent stamp.

Sister Superior's father had a wonderful collection of stamps. She said one of them was worth $1,000 one thousand dollars, and he kept that one in the Bank vault. Her father died last year and she does not know what happened to his collection. You will receive the package within a few days. By the way, my friend says he will have more for me later on.

Now, dear Father for my sad news.

My sister at home had a terrible dream of my dear Mother, who is dead about 18 years, and has had hundreds of Masses offered for her, besides our prayers at Mass and Holy Communion. Out of her own money she put a little boy nine years old through school and the seminary. Now he is a Benedictine. His oldest brother both Papa and Mama also put through, and he is a Benedictine. Now, with all their Masses for her, could my darling Mother still be in Purgatory? She certainly is saved; - she must be! Now, will you please ask Our Lord to let you know if she still needs prayers, or if she is safe in heaven with my dear Father, Sr. Amanda and dear Sr. Leonilla.

My sister Theresa, told Sr. Marcella, who told me. I'll not let Sr. Fina know, unless you say she needs prayers, then Sr. Fina can have you say many Masses, for she gets so many stipends.

I won't feel at peace until I hear definitely from you, because you are so powerful with our Blessed Mother. Miss McGraw, through Sister Fina, sent me the Manuscripts one and two on "Fiat, Fiat, Fiat," and I am trying to be faithful to all our Blessed Mother's prayers and ejaculations specified daily.

I'm saying "Fiat" for all my worrying, but not that my darling Mother should be suffering.

Your prayers were heard for the conversion of one of my relatives. Easter duty was made on Low Sunday, so every thing is all right now.

My throat is still fine, but my arthritis could be better. However I'm not praying that it should get better, because the more suffering now, the sooner I'll be joining Sister Amanda and Sr. Lemille in heaven. I only hope and pray that I shall be as lucky as they were - to go straight to heaven, and see Our dear Lord's smile.

Mons. or Bishop Sheen said over the Radio Sunday night that our dear Lord showed us every thing in this world but one thing He left for Heaven. He showed us His kindness, patience, love, displeasure etc. etc, but He left His Smile for us in Heaven.

I'm really trying to do my little best, and follow your directions. I would dearly love to see you, but I must wait until some opportunity comes.

I hope, dear Rev. Father Alayrins that you keep well, and that our Blessed Mother will obtain all your requests. I remember you in all my prayers each morning, so please say a little prayer for me.

I am in the Immaculate Heart of Mary
Sincerely yours, Sister Louis Marie. S.N.D.

Rev. dear Father:

Thank you very much for your letter. It was indeed a great consolation to me. I have been wanting to write to you since I received it but time and opportunity seem to be lacking. Thank you for your encouragement - I need it now very much. I have not been too well since the opening of school. God has been asking much and with my disagreeable temperament, I have not always responded generously. I am to go the Champaign - to Mercy Hospital - for tests and a check-up during our Thanksgiving vacation. Perhaps while there, I may have the opportunity of writing and explaining a little more. I do not know what the outcome will be - I have already offered it all to our dear Lord. I have been reduced, it seems, to something lower than the least common denominator - things have not gone too well between Mother Rose Mary and myself. You know how much I have always loved and worked with her - recently she seems to misunderstand me altogether. I know that God is probably permitting this. Frankly, Father, at times I have feared that I was losing my mind. My health and my strength seem to be gone altogether. I trust, however, that this is only temporary. I would like to write at length and tell you all but I cannot do so now. May I have a special memento in your kind prayers? I would appreciate your taking care of the enclosed stipends for my sister and me. My sister, Margaret, appreciated your lovely letter to her. She had a beautiful anniversary, a lovely family affair. God has been good to her although she has had her difficulties. You are remembered constantly in my prayers and daily sacrifices, Father. I can never be sufficiently grateful for all you have done for me. Begging your blessing and your prayers,

Reverend Abbot Elacuria. C.M.F.

Dear Father,

Thank you for your kind letter of some time ago. I read it many times and several times in presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

Thank you also Father for the prayer leaflets. The prayers appeal to me and I say them daily, and when I say the prayer to our Lady for holiness I feel a sense of security knowing that she will help me to attain the thing which I most desire.

I had a copy of the Litany of Humility and said it from time to time. My copy however did not contain the last seven invocations. They imply high sanctity, but I am saying them. I do realize Father how much I need humility for I am so prone to feel and show resentment when not consulted professionally so I pray that invocation with special emphasis.

I was surprised to learn this was a prayer of Cardinal Merry del Val. He must have been a saintly soul. No doubt his close association with Blessed Pius X was a great help.

It is a great consolation to know that you pray for me, for prayer can obtain all things necessary and I think you may know what I need most.

God has again repeatedly shown me my weakness. Please pray I may have the strength to cooperate better and be more generous with Him.

I trust you will enjoy the Advent season. I love the liturgy of Advent, and as I tell the novices, it seems as though the Church can scarcely repress her joy in the anticipation of the coming of Christ.

Thanking you again Father and please please keep me in your prayers.
Sincerely in the Sacred Heart,
Sister Marie Ceile

Rev. Father Aloysius.

Dear Rev. Father,

I have been strongly tempted to keep this truly wonderful and valuable collection, which only a rich old Jew (inclined towards catholicity) could succeed in getting over a long period of time. You are the only one I would give it to, for the benefit of your boys.

The gentleman has them segregated and labeled beautifully. I have not gone over all of them, but I typed the names of most of them. There are dozens and dozens in many packages. I wanted to count them, but it would take me until Christmas.

Have you a student who knows the value of stamps? I trusted the set I gave you, to some stamp collector, and he took me out of print - the King of England Edward, as a boy of 12 years of age - the rarest of the rare, so I am rather dubious. He told me he took it, but he said I had another just like it in the set. It did not look like it to me.

I'll try to find out the proximate value of these. Of course some are more valuable than others. He has the Israel stamps well fastened.

There are several thousand, if I understood correctly

If you get the right buyer who needs them to fill out his sets, you will make between ~~$80~~ + ~~$90~~, ^{or more} as they pay. I trust you received my other letter, dear Father. My friend promised me some more stamps.

Thanking you for your prayers and past kindnesses I am, in the Immaculate Heart of Mary,

Sincerely yours,

Sister Louise Marie. S. N. D.

Reverend Father Aloisius Elacuria, Immaculate Heart Institute.

Dear Reverend Father Elacuria,

May I convey to you.

my gratitude to have granted me an interview. - Even if I expressed the wish to speak to you few minutes more. - I would not have exceeded the time of few minutes before five pm.

If I understood correctly you have asked me to pray the Little There for a special intention. - Really I should be embarrased to say that I would pray for you, Father Elacuria - after all, you are the one who is obtaining favors - and I am very grateful.
However, I have been praying ardently the Little Flower for you - I say especially every evening the novena to the Holy Spirit - like the one you have - with a picture of Her on - Beside many times during the day - I have implored Her for you Father. Beside I asked Her to cover herself with all ^{the} merits, of all the Saints - and of Our Blessed Mother, and to present those merits with all the ones of Our Blessed Lord - which are infinite, to Our Father Eternal. - Also to offer His Holy Face to Thee - at your intentions. - With those infinite merits. - The graces that you are seeking will be granted. - No doubt. - So kindly you have been praying for me. - That I will get an interview with Monsignor Permess. - I saw Monsignor. Saturday-morning. I had then, the opportunity to have my plans known for the missions. - He was deeply interested. -

Of course, I did not expect Him to do anything special for me. - for the realization of this project.
I have expressed the desire if it was possible, to present me - or to have a recommendation to some one - that could be interested in the project so I could secure some financial help. - I had in mind the emile Woberg.
or M. Bing Crosby, who have helped Sister Kenny. for polio myelitis and the sports to go to Helsinki. - It may not be possible for me to interest any one - because it is so difficult to meet the right party, who could assist a little. - If they knew of it. I think that very gladly would help me. - The question of my de Ray. have to be settled before Christmas.
it has to come out of the house. where it has been for the last 3 years. - In the beginning of the year also - I would have to pay tax on it around 30.00 and I do not have it. Even if this equipment is essential to prove the value of the adjustment, that I wish to introduce in the missions. - I have to consider to sell it. - beside I need money.
It would ^{have} be nice if some one wishing to help the missions would have bought it from me. - If at least the many knob-factories could benefit from this. - the same equipment.
I have the latest model - would have to be paid $900.00 more now. I could sell mine for $1500.00 - just think factories, they are now 2400.00

The very Reverend Monsignor, told me, if he could he would give me the money. - He said that he was to think over the week end what he can do. - Monsignor told me he would send me a note, because I have no phone. He has Monsignor, an outstanding personality - and very kind and considerate. What a problem I have in hands - I know that I cannot do nothing myself. - So if Our Blessed Lord, wish me to pursue this task, He will have to ^{give} me all the help - and wisdom to know - what I shall do. - Even if I had money for my X-Ray and equipment I have none - to carry on the project. I wish I could know what to do!! I am certain, it can not be otherwise, almighty God, did not permit for nothing, the inspiration of this apostle, so easily applicable in the missions. The 14th of this month is the 25th anniversary of the proclamation of the little Chinese apostles of the missions. - as a sister I am inspiring Her. - to do something soon for the realization of this project. I have worked at it since 1946 - and one cannot never imagined who much troubles - heartaches - I had!! When I was in charge of the education of the Chinese Sumatran - it was there, like the troubles of h-e-l-l - and thank Father, ^{that many} can go on - on life without too much strenuous times. - Of course, I have to believe, that it is for the best!!

Before I forget. Father & Lucia: when I wrote to Lucia. I had ask some prayers for you. These holy ones - have great power in Heaven. - they would obtain you Father, what you obtain for the others.!!

Please look - it will come that may - yours favours. - I will soon write ^{them} again. - I will not forget you Father & Lucia.

About the excommunication of the excommunicate. - you said Father, that we should do it, even if we are not oblate. - So, I did not need to worry about it then. - really is a sort of a way I did - but without going through all the communion etc. etc. every night. - The devil have certainly all kind of ways. To had some one in some kind of error. - I wanted to be truthfull. to my obligations - if I made a promise. - but I could promise to go through this procedure every day. - So I will be received as an oblate after I have been a poor novice for 4 years. - I will say so though Father about Essen. he will judge. if Heaven receive me. - excommunication

Continuing in the subject of excommunication. - in my return from the other day. I surely did - do a big one!
Father & Lucia. - and you will be surprise of my conclusions concerning a certain "person" after analyzing the character, the physical conditions the behaviors. - In spite of all the desire to be charitable. - and tried to believe by pity and to make the others think the same way.
I have prove to myself that I was unjust. - to barely permit be done against justice. I think.
So this "person" is always on the guard to protect herself in the most minute details, to the detriment of others.!! I have seen lots of it during my two weeks there. and on week end at my place - and on other stay at my place. - I do not think now - after deep observations that it is due to a physical emotion - not a mental one. - it seems to stand to reason. - when it is really a mental emotion, those patients do not even protest themselves. - Father, has you have ask me to tell you. - I am doing so with all the charity.

 I cannot conceal the truth. - If I may say. It appear to me that she has no fundamental formation - many times I had ask her - when she would say, (excuse the word) lie. - Why do you say that?
 it is not so - She would answer in rationalism her doing - I do not know if it can be consider a distortion of the conscience? She does not wants to face facts. - she evades anything unpleasant pretending to the truth and justice concerning others. - In my language. at least in my way of speaking and thinking, we call that lie and hypocrisy, dufficiency!! and she is really a master at it! and Father I had seen many people - I am very naïve apparently to not have discover her play right away. - It is so well covered up - so many times - and beside
 I could not believe my eyes that it was possible
 I wanted to be so indulgent. - In many ways it is pitiful to see her - but she attracts those repulsive reactions with this honey talk with hardly no word of truth. - ^{over} she is also great for exploitation, she did so with me - although she knew that I have been very sick - she had imposed on me in every ways - I over look it by charity - but I think by being, or trying to be too good and charitable - one can become good for nothing, such ^{is} me. - This lady I think had her own ways most of her life - and the people stood her non sense, in too many instances. - If I followed her commands - indiscriminately. - and closed my eyes on everything, and further more if I had let my self explode more than 2 weeks. - She would still make me all kinds of promises that she never intended to keep. - I remained her of some. - it is no use - "She does not ... listen ... of what she says!" no wonder the people are deserting her. With all the good will that I had - I have given it. - I could not stand it! even if I had been in good health; most of my life was spent with children - or dealing with gentlemen - and they are not like that. - So the transition was too great for me. It is too bad - because in doing this, she spoils all her good qualities. - She probably means good - but her doing are wrong. - she lost in many instances. - if I may say. - the moral sense. One time, Father, she left on the window a mark on the wall - and I say some children - who were stopping to look more closely - I said - I took it out of the window - and gave it. - and told her. that I thought, that it should not be left in the window forever - after all - it is like human being! and I told her of the children. - She answered me "Oh! those evil minds - those little ones could not be blamed but we have, to be, I think, very particular not to induce undue curiosity. - In a museum it is quite different. - in the Vatican they have the art gallery. - I may be wrong about nothing, mark on the wall or the window. For my own information. I like to know what you think Father. - I know, I am not an example for nothing - but I try to observe those details, which for me, are not. I may be too strict.?"

Would you ever imagine Father - I do not want to exaggerate - but I do not recall that she have thank me for all what I done. I further like I said she had exploited me - and did not give me what I ought and paid for. - In doing my examination for justice. - I decide that it was unfair toward the dear Mrs Marguerite & Ling - to let her accused of having taken a hammer - so, the situation is going to be corrected by me - I will speak to T. . . and will tell her, that it is unfair that Mrs M. & Ling should be accuse of having taken this hammer. - and that she has to go to Mrs O. B. and tell her - that it was herself who took it - most probably she would not want to do it. - I will tell T. . . that I will go myself and tell Mr. U. B. - after all Mrs Marg. & Ling. is perfectly honest in every thing. - & he needs her reputation. and I will see to it that the accusation is remove. - Secondly - T. . . sold me three dishes - and she did not give them all to me - I will give her two other chances - to be equitable if she wants. - if not. I am going to tell her that I am going to expose her. - and that she will hear from my lawyer - further more she is going to pay May for $\frac{1}{2}$ week - or give me the equivalent with things, if she does not have the money. - I will get my money for the dishes. - Once, an for all - she will have the lesson of her life - and it is justice. I think that she got away with every thing & with me she will stop her non sense - she will come down to plain reality. - About the dishes she may say, that she does not have them. - then, she sold them to me by misrepresentation.
 I am telling all this Father, because you may hear that she scream blue murder

I will treat her first like a child who do not know how to behave properly. If she does not act. - she will soon find out, that she met the wrong person - who will stand up indefinitely for & claim her kindness. (That's my own spelling) the only two persons, I believe, that she would not like to know about this is you Father, and Mrs M. F. Ling. - She did not have the truthfulness to tell that it was her - who took that hammer. - I will say that I was with her. - I do not worry or care - for what any body will say. - I stood up fast in front of the world - to defend the truth. - even at the time I lost for this, all my money, reputation and health. - and I have done the same in many other occasions. - I am not now start to blink - at this situation of hypocrisy! It is about time that she stop this sort of things. I think it has existed since a long time. She should besides have many other lessons. - nobody else, she thinks knows anything. - except you Father. or Mrs M. F. Ling. - it is nice. That there is some one. - Has I am going to say most of every things. - so her mentality could may be change - through your influence Father. This person thinks that you know every things, that is going on (I would not be surprised) inside of our heads!! - she was telling me this all the times!! - In any event ^{and if you do} it will be in corroboration... of what you knew before. - I say that to laugh. - but she does not want you to know her - in this way of wrong doing, after this meeting. I think it will be proper for me not to assist any more at the Guild meeting Father. - I am afraid I will make her lose the benefit of those gatherings.

I forgot to mention and thank you ever so much Father Alosyus for the good messages that you had given for us - to Mrs. M. Flieg, on Thanksgiving.
It was very gracious of you - Father, to offer us your greetings in such a way. a "shower of favours" or something of the sort.

I have received recently a beautiful exam-plar of the "reine" Marie - I had brought it to Mrs. B. Brown. - I will get another one - I will be very pleased to offer it to you Father. It is wonderful - you would like it. They have few writings on Ste Therese d'Avila. - Saint John of the Cross - St. Francis etc. -

Since my cross have been blessed - by your Father and that I could have the advantage to do the Stations of the Cross at home. - I make them every day. - I was very sorry for the last year I could not go to church for a visit to the Blessed Sacrament, every day.
like I use to do home. in the same time I was making the Stations of the Cross. -

O H! yes thanks to your favour. I - succeeded to pay me the balance that she owes me - it got me 1.00 - to collect it. - by telephone - letters etc. - I at least I got it.

Father Alosyus, if you like some day to read the book of Mrs. Fulton J. Sheen. - "The World's first Love" Our Blessed Mother. I will be pleased to pass it to you - Father.

I am certain that you will think that I told you all this. I ~~because~~ the other - I did not wish to speak about it.

If I - wants to act properly - it would be all right, I thank God. I do not keep no ground yet. But I am not going to change my attitude for firmness now. - it is for her good I believe. I do not think now that she will ever care to see me. - For all the work - I have done during 2 weeks - she did not pay me a penny. - I was buying my own food.
- prepare her - and not even a thank. - She really thinks she very superior - to every one - She had treated me like a slave. - "I want you to do this and that" she would say to me. - I told her that I did never spoke to my staffs that way - many gentlemen, of the Royal Mounted Police - took my orders. - If I spoke that way ^{to them} they would have thrown my head off - they would have been right -

So you see Father & Laurence, I am not so virtuous - I cannot have that thing go on any more. - you have given me great confidence. thinking I could be a contemplative time. - I am as far from that state of life - as it can be. - This decision that I took. - it is after my examination of conscience - who could have think of such change -

Excuse my lengthly letter, if you please.

Yours very humble,

Jaqueline Hailé

Reverend and dear Father Aloysius,

The Sisters of my household were made very happy by the reliquary crosses. I intended them for Christmas gifts but I decided I should not deprive them of the joy and privilege of wearing them from the time I returned home until Christmas. I am asking Saint Anthony Claret to take a very special interest in my family and asking him to obtain that degree of union God had in mind when He created their souls.

If I'm not to selfish, if you still have some of these first class relics, may I have four more? Please keep them until next time I'm at St. John's, which I think will be some time early in our new year.

Father, the certificates authenticity were not dated. Will you please give me the dates and I will write them in before I give them to the Sisters. I know how busy you are and you can wait for that too, until I return to California as I left the certificates at St. John's when I noticed they were not dated.

We are all endeavoring to give our Infant Jesus a very warm welcome His first Christmas at De Paul.

We have a novena of Masses starting today and we are having Forty Hours Devotion starting December 27th-28th-29th. Your intention will be remembered and please continue your prayerful intercession for our community.

We are organizing our Medical Staff and we have great need of the Holy Spirit always but especially during this first year of organization.

May the Christ Child bless you and your Novices with His choicest graces during this holy season of Christmas.

Sincerely yours in His Sacred Heart,

Sister Anna Raymond.

Dear Father Aloysius;

Will you kindly take care of some masses for the repose of the soul of Richard Tracy St. John, Jr. who was buried this week.
Either say five high masses or ten low masses, whichever you think would be better.

I would like to have a mass card sent to his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs.
Richard Tracy St. John, 12730 Sunset Blvd, Los Angeles 49. and please put our names, "Agnes and John Rauen" on the card.

Thank you very kindly,

Father.

Sincerely -

Christmas, 1952

"... for this day is born to you a Savior." Luke ii, 11.

Dear Father,

I just thought to drop a little note in with the card & save a little postage. I know you don't mind. Everyone is fine & in the very best of health & happiness. It's rather hard to believe that Christmas time is here again. I am going to miss decorating your little chapel very much.

It used to be so much fun, - my pride and joy. No doubt the novices will do a beautiful job this year. They are all quite gifted.

You may be sure you will have a special remembrance at Midnight Mass & Communion. I will be praying for all your needs & intentions as well as those of the novices. Please remember me in your Christmas Mass, that I will always appreciate my high calling, that I be always faithful to my profession, & that I reach the degree of sanctity Our Lord has meted out for me. But most of all, pray that I grow more and more every day in my love for Our dear Blessed Mother. Again, - may your Christmas be holier & brighter than ever before. God love you and sincere thanks for everything.

Dear Father Alpine, May the Dear Infant Jesus love and bless you and keep you His Own forever.

Thank you so very much for all your prayers and sacrifices for me. I am more grateful than words can express. If it were not for your good prayers for me I would still be in a terrible state of worry.
But thank God thru your prayers
I think I am really better. May
Our Lord always bless you.

We are enjoying a lovely vacation and appreciate it. Our Christmas was wonderful! We had Midnight High Mass and went to Baly Cross for their 5:30 High Mass. We sang hymns at the 8:00 o'clock Mass, for Bishop Grant and had two more Holy Masses here at 9:00 a.m. We rarely get an extra Mass here so it was a great treat to assist at so many.

Sister Philip wrote this poem and Sister Ignita made the drawing. It is a nice card, isn't it?

At This Christmastide

Wishes For You and Yours
The Peace of Christ and
The Reign of Christ

I didn't send the card before because I wanted to write to you and we only send letters to our families before Christmas. I haven't written Sister Nell yet but please God, will do so today. Nearly all went to Holy Cross Hospital for a Party. I'd rather keep the door - closed. You never seem to get anything done when there is vacation.

Please beg the Holy Ghost to make me docile as you told me to pray - and to unite my desires and good actions to Those of Our Lord. I am too scatter-brained but please God I'll try to do better. Tuesday is your day. Thank you for all your prayers and kind interest. God Bless You.
